Stevens as a Political Clown---His Influence Gone---The Committee of Fifteen a Failure---Congress and Negro Suffrage---The Radicals Divided---The Financial Interests Another Heavy Task.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Examiner.)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 12.

There was a good deal of stage trick in Mr. Stevens' speech. Without seeming to assail the President, he contrived with a member to be interrupted in his discourse, by a question touching the President's notice of him in the address of the 22d of February, and affected to treat the President's remarks as democratic fable. So he brought in and caused to be read a paragraph from the New York World, exceedingly abusive of the President, in reference to the inauguration drama, all which he pretended to treat as a slander.

By way of retaliation, it is said that a member will read a paragraph from Forney, written some years ago, in the Lancaster Intelligencer, denouncing Stevens as "a villain at heart." Radicalism makes strange bed-fellows. The power of Mr. Stevens over Congress is broken, and it is said that he himself is willing to retire from his position of leadership.

His Committee on Reconstruction, which was intended to usurp the whole power of the government, is a failure, and both houses have lost confidence in it, as well as in him.

Congress has proved their incapacity for the work of reconstruction. They cannot agree upon any practicable plan, and must, in the end, yield to the President's policy.

It is probable that the Senate will endeavor to patch up an amendment basing representation on voters, to take effect after the next census. But some of the Eastern and Western States are opposed to this, and it will fail, and so will every scheme for forcing negro suffrage upon the lately slaveholding States.

The radicals say that they cannot succeed in carrying another Presidential election unless they have the negro vote. In order to give effect to that vote, they will propose an amendment to the constitution, providing that the President shall be chosen by qualified voters of the States, voting directly for their candidate, and without the intervention of an electoral college. They say that in a population of thirty-one millions, they cannot calculate upon a majority unless they can secure the suffrage of the four or five millions of the black population.

Congress will wrangle and flounder over these topics till the people or the cholera drive them home; but that they will devise and agree upon any practical plan of reconstruction is not to be believed.

The republican majority has already witnessed the loss of the unity and strength with which they commenced the conflict with the President, and very soon, when they approach practical subjects—of revenue, taxation and currency—they will be entirely divided and broken up.

There will be a struggle on the loan or funding bill, between the Treasury plan and Mr. Stevens' project. Mr. McCulloch's policy is to contract the currency, fund the floating debt, establish a sinking fund of a hundred millions a year, and make a foreign loan, when it can be done on advantageous terms, upon long bonds and a low rate of interest. Mr. Stevens' substitute prohibits the contraction of the currency, and any loan, and merely authorizes the funding of the floating debt. The protected interests are averse to any reduction of the currency by which prices of their products will be reduced. The holders of large stocks of imported goods are also using their influence in the same direction. The national banks, too, are apprehensive that, if the currency be contracted, they will lose the private deposits, upon which they are making large profits.

It is possible that Congress will do nothing with the subject, leaving Mr. McCulloch to act under existing laws.

RELEASE OF HON. S. R. MALLORY.

We are happy to learn, through the columns of the New York Daily News, that the Hon. S. R. Mallory, late Secretary of the Confederate Navy, has been released on parole from his long and painful confinement.

Whenever we see an announcement of the release of a political prisoner, we feel that another step has been taken towards restoring tranquility to the country, and look forward to the day when the key of the last Bastile in the United States shall be hung up at Mt. Vernon, along side that grim and rusty bit of iron which was once sent to this country with the hope and trust that here there would never be any use for it, or any thing like it in this country.—Norfold Virginian.

CONGRESSIONAL SPEECHES FOR DISTANT CONSUMPTION—THE PRESIDENT'S PLAN FINALLY TO PREVAIL, &C.

[Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.]

WASHINGTON, March 11.

Speeches are now deliberately prepared in the closet, and are now ready for the press before they are read in either House. They are intended for distant readers, and will be circulated by thousands through the country, with a view to influence the elections. Of this discription was the elaborate speech of Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, read by him in the House yesterday. The practice of reading lessens the interest of the auditor, but Mr. Stevens' speech is addressed to remote readers. He contended that the Executive had no power over the subject of reconstruction on the terms of peace, and that all this belonged to Congress. His personal remarks upon the President were so managed as to raise a laugh. This portion of the speech seemed to attract more attention than anything in the argument.

Granting that Congress alone has any power over the subject of restoration of the Union, it becomes a matter of interest to know what their plan is. So far as we know, after the three months, they are incapable of perfecting a plan to suit themselves. Mr. Stevens' plan, so far as the projects of the reconstruction committee disclose it, does not meet with the approval of more than a bare majority of the Senate, and could not probably again command a two-thirds vote in the House. The Senate must be expected to understand the subject as well as the House, and in that body, as was shown on Friday, there are almost as many different minds as men.

The President having in view no sectional or party interest, being elevated above the fleeting passions and prejudices of Congress, and having also the advantage of better information than any individual can have as to the condition of the country, has proposed a plan of reconstruction, and, sooner or later, Congress will be forced by the popular will to adopt it. Nothing that stands in the way of entire pacification and restoration of the Union, will long be tolerated. The Stevens-Sumner clique "kicks against the pricks."

The attempt will be made in the Senate next Thursday to modify the defeated representation plan by adopting the number of voters, as it may be in 1870-'71, as the basis of representation, but it will probably fail.

IMPORTANT LETTER FROM DANIEL PERKINSON!

NEW YORK, March 3d, 1866.

MR. JOHN H. LAHMEYER:

Friend and Partner—It is with feelings of the profoundest gratitude that I write you these lines. I wish for you to state to our Virginia and North Carolina friends that I have bought the

LARGEST STOCK OF GOODS

I have ever had, and that we can sell them, both retail and wholesale, to give entire satisfaction.

Our stock will be complete, and if they wish to get bargains they must not fail to call on PERKINSON & LAHMEYER, No. 9 Bank street, Petersburg.

I have made my purchases with an eye expressly to County Merchants and Saddlers.

I have also made arrangements for us to be receiving every description of CARRIAGES and BUGGIES the trade may demand. Our motto must be, "Quick sales and small profits."

Very respectfully, yours, &c.,
DANIEL PERKINSON.

The above was written to me by Mr. Perkinson while in New York, and deeming it a good advertisement, I concluded to have it published.

E. F. Coe's Super-Phosphate of Lime,
OR BONE MANURE.
WARRANTED GENUINE.

BEING MADE OF THE BEST MATERIAL AND in the most approved manner, it is recommended to the public as superior to any other in the market. All who have used it speak of it in the highest terms of praise, and those engaged in its manufacture will continue their best endeavors to advance the high reputation which it has acquired.

We guarantee the Phosphate to be well manufactured, and recommend it in preference to any other artificial manure in the market. We consider it nearly equal to the best Peruvian Guano, although furnished at half the price.

Messrs B. H. Allen & Co., the well known manufacturers of agricultural implements, say of it:

"We take pleasure in stating that we have sold E. F. Coe's Super Phosphate of Lime for four years.—It has given universal satisfaction to our customers. We most cheerfully endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, and the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured.

"We would state that, after careful examination, we believe this Phosphate has been improved each year since its introduction in this market, and that it will continue to maintain its present high standing. "Very respectfully,

"R. H. ALLEN & CO.,

PROSPECTUS
OF THE COSMOPOLITE.

ON THE FIRST OF JANUARY WE WILL commence the publication, in the City of Baltimore, of a monthly Literary Magazine.

There is no publication of this character now issued South of New York City, and the closing of the war has left a large portion of the people of the country with no literary representative.

The COSMOPOLITE will be devoted to Literature, Art, Reviews, Scientific Papers and General Reading, and we shall number among its contributors some of the first literary men of the South, with others from the North and from London and Paris.

All matter not original will be carefully selected from the newest and best of the English, French and German publications; and its Editors will spare no effort or expense to make it rank with the very FIRST magazines of the country.

As its name imports, we have established the COSMOPOLITE upon no sectional basis. We hope to make it the organ of general literature alone; and will be uninfluenced by any party or clique whatever.

It will be mailed to subscribers in any part of the country upon receipt of the following

Subscription:

Single Copies, for one year,	$4 00
Five Copies for one year,	18 00
Ten copies for one year,	36 00

☞ The COSMOPOLITE will be generally distributed among the Merchants and Planters of the South, and we will add, for their information, a few advertisements, at moderate rates.

☞ Liberal deductions will be made to booksellers and newsdealers.

☞ Newspapers publishing this prospectus and sending a marked copy to the undersigned, will receive a copy of the magazine. Address

THE DAILY SENTINEL

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES, } Editors.

Thursday, March 15, 1866.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For Daily, per year,	$10 00
" six months,	5 00
" one month	1 00
" two months	2 00
Semi-Weekly per year,	5 00
Weekly per year,	3 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. The Weekly and Semi-weekly will be issued about the first of January. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

☞ We desire to employ two steady No. 1 Book hands on the State work. None others need apply.

We are receiving words of encouragement and cheer from the Union men of all parts of the State, for the course which we have recently adopted towards the disaffected and disloyal. Our views have been the same all along, but we have been governed until recently by the hope that it might not be necessary to draw the lines for good and all, and finally, between the true Union men and those who profess to be the friends of the President. That hope has vanished. Be of good cheer, friends of the Union. Your cause will be sustained and vindicated. The President is with you. Congress is with you. The skies are brightening. It may be a long time before the perfect day is ushered in, but true Union men have no real cause to fear what the future will reveal.—Standard.

Of course our neighbor has encouragement in its course, otherwise it would not pursue it.—There are men in the State, who approach the people and the "secessionists and the latter day war men," with honeyed lips, while malice and envy and revenge are in their hearts. The lust for office and position intensify this spirit, and lead men to counsel and sustain any scheme, which will put themselves up and others down.

Our neighbor advertises the people of North Carolina, that it is making a war of extermination upon traitors. We have proffered to aid it in searching them out. We have asked, over and over again, who are the traitors—what, in its estimation, constitutes a traitor? We can get no answer.

We now challenge it to name them—to say who, in the estimation of the President and the laws, are traitors and disloyal? We advertise the Standard, that, until it does this, we will brand it as a libeller of the good people of North Carolina. Its war is a war against the State—against the people of the State, who dare to differ with the Standard. Its pretences to sustain the President—to expose disloyalty—to defend the Union, are all bosh. Every body knows what the Standard means by its pretences. If President Johnson has been a reader of the Standard for the last two months, he knows that the pretences of that paper to support him are false and hypocritical. It professed to be pleased with his veto message, and yet publishes without comment the most violent attacks upon the President. It even published the vile abuse of the President by Fred. Douglass. It professes to be a friend of the South, and yet publishes, with evident satisfaction and approval, what it knows to be false charges against the Southern people. Every thing that it can rake up, to strengthen the hands of the Radicals against the President, it does and publishes it with gusto. Correspondents and papers that sustain the President against the Radicals, it calls copperheads.

And yet, above, it tells the so-called Union men—the early secessionists and early war men, some of whom afterwards turned buffaloes and deserters to the cause—the latter-day Union men, in fact, who became Union after they got whipped and cowardly deserted the cause they had sworn to support—yes, it tells these good Union men, "Be of good cheer, friends of the Union. Your course will be sustained and vindicated. The President is with you. Congress is with you. The skies are brightening."

Now, we commend this exclamation to the special notice of the President. "The President is with you. Congress is with you." The President denounces the ultra Radicals in Congress as seeking to destroy the Union. They are precisely like the so-called Union men of North Carolina. They are no friends of peace and quiet and Union. They are hostile to President Johnson's policy—declare that policy to be a failure, and yet profess to be friends of the President.

Let our readers put things together. Let them review the course of the Standard, for the last two months especially. Let them make inquisition into the cabals and counsels of the so-called Union men recently, and then say if there is not a secret combination in the State to defeat the President's policy—to throw the State into the hands of the Radicals, for the purpose of breaking up the civil government—restoring the Provisional Governor—keeping up the military organization and abolishing civil courts and civil law! That is what the Radicals in Congress desire. They wish to break up the President's plan—nullify what he has done to effect restoration—declare the present civil governments a nullity—adopt a new system of reconstruction, which declares the success of secession—that the States are out of the Union and can only be brought back by the votes of so called loyal men—the so called Union men, the buffaloes, the deserters and the freedmen.

We can determine nothing else from the teachings and declarations of the Standard.—Its tone and teaching plainly indicate, that, in order to get its peculiar friends back into power, it will sanction every measure of the Radicals. We call upon the people of North Carolina to rally to the support of President Johnson and his policy—to defeat the aims and ends of those who seek to fasten upon the people of North Carolina military government and the Freedmen's Bureau indefinitely. They are down, KEEP THEM DOWN, until they learn to be quiet, and humane, and forgiving, and anxious for the peace and prosperity of the State!

The Union Men.

We have heretofore stated, that we have no prejudicies against any man, who was a Union man before the war, and who properly maintained his consistency during the war and since. Those who were true Union men before the war, and who honestly preferred the Union after North Carolina took her position with the South, were entirely justifiable in leaving the State during the war, or in joing the Northern army, or in remaining quietly at home, taking no part except what the laws compelled them to take.—We were opposed to the persecution of such men among us during the war, and we are opposed to their being mistreated in any way.—They were honest in their opinions, and we believe that no man should be punished for his honest opinion on any subject.

But such Union men are not justifiable in the exhibition of vindictive or bitter feelings towards those who were as honest as they were, and who are now as good citizens and as loyal as they are, who differed with them.

But we do object to the pretensions of so-called Union men—men who first sustained the war—were for fighting to the "last dollar and the last man," but who got whipped at an early day, backed down from its support, labored to excite hostility to the cause, and now claim to be genuine Union men, and are vindictive and bitter against those who differ with them.

We prefer harmony and quiet and good will among all our people. We believe that our past differences should be forgotten, and that every man's claims should be judged of by his merits—every man's loyalty should be determined by his present and future action.

We are opposed to "strait-sectism" because it is persecuting in its spirit, vindictive in its temper, and judges every man by unsound and improper tests. If men who act with the "strait sect," are kind and conciliatory in their spirit, are willing to live and let live, we have no quarrel with them. If they are willing to forgive and forget, we are ready to recognize them as co-workers in the work of restoration and re-cuperation.

But, if, on the other hand, they are determined to persecute and villify men whom they vindictively style "secessionists and latter day war men," because of their past opinions, who are now as good men, and true as they are, we shall drive them to the wall, if we can. We shall hold them to the true tests of loyalty, and will contest every inch of ground with them.

Perhaps altogether the littlest exhibition of malignity towards the South, of which the Radical majority in Congress have yet been guilty, was displayed in their recent course upon the West Point Appropriation Bill. Even that could not be allowed to pass, without having incorporated in it some evidence of vindictiveness towards our people, in the shape of a proviso, that no part of the monies appropriated should be applied to the pay or subsistence of a cadet from any State lately in rebellion, until Congress shall have declared such State restored to its original relations to the Union! Of course, this was designed, not only as a fresh ventilation of hatred towards our people, but also as a fling at the President,—a re-assertion of the supremacy of Congress and the nullity of the Executive. It was intended to anticipate anything the President might see fit to do, in the matter of appointing cadets, when he shall have declared these States fully restored, or entitled, to all their just constitutional relations to the general government just as much, we say, as it was seized as a fresh occasion for trampling upon an unhappy and prostrate former foe.

It is even in such small matters that Congress daily manifests its hostility to President Johnson. And yet the Standard would have them in wondrous accord! The time will speedily come, when that paper will be compelled to do openly, what it now does but covertly,—take sides with the one or the other! In other words, we make the prediction that the period is not far distant, when it will publicly array itself with the radicals and against the Administration! We shall see.

Gen. Thomas' Testimony.

On yesterday we copied from the Standard a statement, which professed to be taken from the testimony of Maj. Gen. Thomas, to the effect, "that secret organizations exist in all the rebel States" whose purposes are treasonable. The Standard treated it as the bona fide testimony of Gen. Thomas, and backed it up with the declaration that such an organization existed in this State.

We did not have time to examine for ourselves the testimony of Gen. Thomas, but we unhesitatingly expressed our belief that it was not true.

On yesterday a gentleman of intelligence and reliability informed us that he had read the testimony of Gen. Thomas himself, before the Committee of reconstruction, and that in his judgment the statements of the General neither warrant the assertions of the Committee nor of the Standard. We have not had time to hunt up the paper which contains it, but we have no doubt he is correct. He states, that Gen. Thomas stated, that he had received from various sources information of the existence of such associations in the late rebel States, but that the General did not vouch for the correctness of the information!

To Subscribers.

We are sending the Sentinel to a number of our friends who have not paid us. The time of a number has expired, but, believing they desired its continuance, we have continued it.—We regret to say, that our expenses are so heavy for paper, &c., that we shall be compelled to discontinue the paper to all who do not pay up by the 1st. of April next. Notice the cross mark. This arrangement does not apply to our city subscribers whom we can see any day.

The Semi-Weekly Sentinel.

The Semi-Weekly Sentinel will be issued on Wednesday next. It will be issued regularly on Wednesday and Saturday evenings, and mailed at once to subscribers. Price $5 00 per year.

Correspondence.

We publish, to-day, a correspondence between several members of the bar of the State and Judge Battle, from which it appears, that the Digest, to which we made allusion, editorially, a few days since, is looked for with interest by the profession, and will soon make its appearance.

RALEIGH, N. C. Feb. 7th, 1866.

HON. W. H. BATTLE:—The undersigned, members of the legal profession, having learned that you have completed a manuscript Digest of all reported cases in North Carolina, desire to express their gratification at the prospect of the appearance of a work so valuable and so much needed by the profession in this State, and to request its publication at your earliest convenience.

CHAPEL HILL, March 9th, 1866.

GENTLEMEN:—I have just received your note requesting the early publication of a digest of all the reported cases, determined in the courts of the State, which, you say, you have heard that I have prepared. I am highly gratified by the interest which you manifest in the proposed work. It is true, that it is nearly completed, and it will be put to press as soon as the necessary preparations for it, which I have commenced, can be finished. The work will appear in two volumes,—the first containing the Law, and the second the Equity decisions—and it will embrace every reported case which has ever been published in the State, from the earliest period down to the present time. I have bestowed much care and labor upon the work, and hope it will meet the approbation of the bench and bar of North Carolina, at whose instance, and for whose benefit, it has been prepared.

With high regard,
I am yours, truly,
WILL. H. BATTLE.

To HON. M. E. MANLY,
J. M. HUTCHISON, Esq.,
P. MURPHY, Esq., and others.

Colored Laborers.

The following note from a gentleman of Warren, in response to our suggestion, contains some important information. We are inclined to think that the practice of paying in kind will work badly:

WARREN CO., N. C., March 10.

Editors Sentinel:—Your article of the 3rd inst., calling for intelligence respecting free negro labor, should get a response from every farmer. The general information he would acquire, in place of the local news he gave, would be a large and valuable return for his small outlay. There is, as you are informed, much dissatisfaction expressed by both employers and laborers, but, with myself, as with all others who do not give a part of the crop, but wages, things have gone on pretty satisfactorily. To be sure, the negroes have to be overseen by their employer or his agent, or much time will be idled away. In this connection, let me ask what has become of that clause of the "Freedmen's Code," which was to "secure to the laborer his pay in kind?" What did it mean?—To compel another standard of value beside money? or to entail on the farmer all the annoyances of division—multiplied a hundred fold by the negroes immaturity of mind, which leads him to incorrect and extravagant expectations, suspicions of fraud, and consequent discontent? All this is not a tenth part of the inconvenience.

As to contracts, Capt. Evans, of the Freedmen's Bureau at Warrenton, has declared his intention of compelling hands to abide by their contracts, and has done so, whenever violations have been brought to his notice.

Indeed, were this not done, it would be hard to imagine for what good to whites or blacks the Bureau was inaugurated. M. M.

President Johnson as Described by an Enemy.

Mr. John D. Baldwin, member of Congress from Massachusets, warns the Radicals, of whom he is one, that they must expect a terrible conflict in their war upon the President. Speaking of his 22d of February speech, Mr. Baldwin, with mingled awe and hate, delivers himself as follows:

* * * "What the President said is before the country. How he said it, my poor words may fail to tell. For the first time I stood near and looked closely on the man. In the course of an eventful life I have seen many men of wilful power and force, but never before have I looked on one so thoroughly embodying the evil spirit of revolution. It will not do to underrate Mr. Johnson. He is terribly in earnest and withal most vindictively cool. A thoroughly paced demagogue, his unconsequential logic, his egotism, his repetitions, his thorough belief in himself, and his popularity, are all elements of strength when he faces such assemblages as were arrayed about him yesterday. Andrew Johnson is an able man; how able I never realized till yesterday. All results are involved in his policy. Had he a Cabinet as able and as desperate, the dire results which the near future would bring could hardly be named now. We stand on the verge of fierce strife, to meet which the country should gather its strength and gird up its loins. This man is no weak Buchanan, and he means to crush Congress or be crushed.

"Mr. Johnson is a man of stalwart mould:—Just above middle stature, he is so broad-shouldered, firm set, and deep-chested as almost to seem below it. He has a large head. It is a compact home for his fiery will and brain. His face is marked, strong oval outline, powerful under jaw, well defined but rather sharp chin; a wide, wrait mouth, full flexible lips, skin coarse in texture but firm, complexion swarthy, hair coarse black, streaked with gray, a nose small at the root, but full and large at the nostrils, which expand and lift as he speaks, broad, roomy forehead, beetling bushy eye brows, beneath which are a pair of the coldest, hazel gray eyes I ever saw in a human head; these are the outlines of Andrew Johnson.

"His voice is clear, harsh, powerful and penetrating. When he seems speaking with most excitement he is evidently the coolest man in the world. I watched him with the awakened interest of one who felt the magnitude of the crisis the speaking was creating, and am convinced that all he said was weighed and measured, and meant to bring about certain results. When the tumult of applause which greeted his strongest denunciation and most violent attack was surging around, those cold eyes and that crafty smile could be seen calculating the entire scope and its accessories.

[From the New York Herald.]

The Financial Situation and the Currency.

The decline in gold, or, in other words, the appreciation of the currency, progresses steadily. There are spasmodic fluctuations in Wall street every day or so, and sometimes every day, from causes that are local or incidental, and through gold and stock operations. But the causes of the steady approximation of paper to specie is general, and lies in the extraordinary productions and business of the country, and in the demand for a large circulating medium. The exportation of gold has been less, too, of late, and consequently the accumulation in the country greater. So far it falls of its own weight. The exportation of our productions, and of cotton especially, has answered the purpose of gold in paying for our importations.—It is a pity the crazy politicians at Washington can not see the importance of promptly restoring the Southern States, of pacifying the country, and thereby increasing the production of cotton and other things in the South. That is the true way to bring about specie payments. Gold has touched 129¾ in its decline, and that not spasmodically, but steadily. This may be seen by going back to last summer, and by looking at the quotations from that period to the present time. Almost every one in the financial circles of this city is satisfied now that this decline will go on gradually, if not prevented by the disorganizing radicals in Congress.

The question of providing for the Treasury notes and bonds that will become due during the next two years, and other questions relative to our finances and the currency, must come up at an early day. The subject will be brought up on the discussion of what is termed "the Morrill bill"—that is, the bill of the chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means and the Secretary of the Treasury—and on the substitute of Mr. Thaddeus Stevens. The substitute differs from the bill materially, and in one particular of great importance to the business of the country. It authorizes the funding only of interest bearing notes or other interest bearing representatives of value, and not of the non-interest bearing greenbacks. The original bill favors a contraction of the currency, and gives the power of contraction to a dangerous extent into the hands of the Secretary of the Treasury; the substitute withholds authority to fund our greenback circulating medium.

The authorities at Washington are floundering about in a sea of uncertainty on this very important matter of the national finances and currency, and appear to be governed by no fixed or settled principle. This is injurious to the business interest of the country and our credit both at home and abroad. We want some fixed principle and a settled plan, especially with regard to the currency. With all the prospects of increasing development in the trade and productions of the country people begin to hesitate and exhibit doubt as to the future. They want to know what they are really worth, what the government is going to do with the currency, and, consequently, how far they may extend or contract their business. There is reason to fear disturbances or even a paralysis of business if the present uncertainty should last. We should know positively what the amount of the currency or circulating medium is to be, and upon what principle it is to be established or regulated. No Secretary of the Treasury or any other individual should have it in his power to tinker with such an important matter according to his own theories. The country needs stability in this respect, and the people will demand it.

The laws of nature and of trade will operate in regulating the currency and in bringing us back to specie payments as gently and almost as imperceptibly as the dew falls from heaven, while any sudden and injudicious action on the part of government will operate like a disturbance in the natural elements and produce a storm. Convulsions would follow any violent or great disarrangement of the present volume of currency and established values as surely as a thunder storm follows a disturbance in the equilibrium of the elements above us. The country will grow up to the present currency if there be no extension of it. There ought to be no more national bank circulation authorized.—On the contrary, measures ought to be taken to curtail the present circulation by gradually substituting greenbacks for it. Then, if anything be done to hasten the approximation of paper to gold faster than the laws of nature and trade would bring it about, let the currency of the government be withdrawn in so slow a manner as not to be felt. For example, if we take the difference between gold and paper to-day as thirty-three, and the government should withdraw carefully and almost imperceptibly an amount of currency that would make a decline of four per cent a year in gold, that might not disturb the business and values of the country. We should reach specie payments in eight years by such a process. But, if the country be restored to peace and harmony, and its wonderful career of prosperity be not arrested by political agitators and disorganizers, we should arrive, probably, at that desirable object much sooner without any legislation whatever on the subject.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen. Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadship and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire last war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps who have moved to Salisbury from all points in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—A. Creech, Fayetteville Street, advertises an attractive and beautiful Spring Stock. His goods are always judiciously selected, and produce a rush.

W. H. Avera, Agent of the Public Treasurer, announces an important sale of State property at Rocky Mount on the 29th. inst.

McIlwaine & Co., of Petersburg, whose firm is a household word in North Carolina, present their usual inducements for the Spring trade.

We are glad to notice the revival of the Salisbury Brass Band—one of the best we have ever had in this State. We commend the announcement of Mr. W. H. Neave, its leader, to all lovers of music.

Messrs. Cowper and Moore will have an auction of valuable Furniture, and other articles, on Saturday morning next.

Green Lowry advertises horses stolen.

W. E. Pierce, Agent, wants a partner in the lumber business.

THE GEE TRIAL.—The Military Commission in this case met again on Monday. A number of witnesses were examined on that and the following days, all of whom were, at one time or other, prisoners of war at Salisbury. The Court has been in session sixteen days.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Atkinson preached in Fayetteville, on Sunday last, and administered the rite of confirmation to twenty persons.

THE CITIES—SO CALLED.—The Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington, elected under the new charter, were qualified on the 10th, and immediately entered upon the duties of office. Our Wilmington cotemporaries do not seem particularly elated at their new municipal dignity. Our Charlotte friends, on the contrary, are quite jubilant over their added importance,—for it, also, is a "city." The Times says sportively:

"Charlotte is now a City—full blown (don't understand any allusion to March winds and dust—we don't mean that) with a Mayor and Aldermen! Just think of it! London can't beat that! That great city only has Mayor and Aldermen. Of course, then, it is no greater than we."

Col. Wm. L. Davidson, of Charlotte, has been requested by the ladies of Winchester, Va., to act as agent in that section of the State for collecting funds for the proposed cemetery at the latter place.

GOV. VANCE.—The Statesville American says, in reference to the statements that have been going the rounds that this gentleman had been stricken by paralysis, that his affliction was more properly neuralgia. We are gratified to learn, from the same paper, that all the symptoms have measurably disappeared, and that his general health was never better.

THE WELDON BRIDGE.—A correspondent of the Norfolk Old Dominon says that this important structure will be completed in April. The re-construction will cost about $60,000,—original cost double that amount.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—We regret to learn, from the Wilmington papers, that almost the entire property of Col. Thos. C. McIlhenny, near that place, was consumed by fire on the 10th.

Col. McIlhenny had just succeeded in establishing a very large shop for the erection of railroad choaches and had completed his contracts for the same. His machinery had been put up—his lumber had been hauled and sawed, and all was in readiness. But in an unfortunate moment some infamous vagabonds set fire to mill, machinery, house and all, and of course all is lost.

Col. McIlhenny resided in this city for more than a year and is favorably known to many of our citizens.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF N. C.
Raleigh, N. C. March 5th, 1866.

GENERAL COURT MARTIAL, }
ORDERS No. 29. }

I. * * * Before a Military Commission which convened at Raleigh, North Carolina, February 12th, 1866, pursuant to Special Orders, No. 252 and No. 32, dated Headquarters Department of North Carolina, Raleigh, N. C., November 28th, 1865, and February 12th, 1866, and of which Lieutenant Colonel George T. Shaffer, 28th Michigan Infantry, is President, was arraigned and tried:

Elizabeth Ball.

CHARGE.

"Murder."

Specification.—"That Elizabeth Ball, on or about the 12th day of January, 1866, feloniously, wilfully and of her malice aforethought, did kill and murder James Thomas, a colored man. This at or near Henderson, in the County of Granville, in the State of North Carolina."

To which charge and specification the prisoner pleaded, "Not Guilty."

FINDING.

The Commission having maturely considered the evidence adduced, finds the prisoner, Elizabeth Ball, as follows:

Of the specification to charge, "Guilty," except the words, "and of her malice aforethought."
Of the charge, "Not Guilty."
But of manslaughter, "Guilty."

SENTENCE.

And the Commission does therefore sentence her, Elizabeth Ball, "To be imprisoned for the term of three (3) years at such place as the Commanding General may direct."

II. * * The proceedings, findings and sentence in the foregoing case of Elizabeth Ball are approved and confirmed. The sentence is hereby mitigated to imprisonment for one year, and will be executed under direction of the commanding officer of the Post of Raleigh, North Carolina.

By command of Brevet Major General Ruger:
J. A. CAMPBELL,
Assistant Adjutant General.

A mass meeting was held at Kansas City on Saturday, the 3d instant, which endorsed the President's veto message.

GENERAL NEWS.

The belief is general among the best informed members of the bar of the supreme court, that the trial of civilians by military commission will be pronounced unconstitutional in the test case now being argued.

The New Hampshire election takes place on Thursday, and the politicians are having a lively time in that State. The vote last year stood for Smith, republican, 34,145; Harrington, democrat, 28,017.

The ladies of Baltimore are holding a fair in that city, the proceeds of which are to be applied to the relief of such of the Southern people as have been reduced to destitution by the ravages of civil strife.

It is thought that the Virginia tobacco crop will be about one-third of what it was before the war.

City Point, Virginia, has been discontinued as a rendezvous for troops awaiting muster out.

The Old Capitol prison is thrown open to the public, and the curious have an opportunity of inspecting the cells of the many noted prisoners who have been confined there at different periods of the war. The picture of Wirz, pencilled by his own hand, still remains on the wall of the cell occupied by that unfortunate.

The Boston papers say that the richest person in Massachusetts is a boy, the son of the late Joshua Sears. His property is valued at $8,000,000.

It is rumored that a resolution will soon be offered in the House, providing for the adjournment of the present session of Congress in May. There is no probability of the adoption of any such proposition, unless the Asiatic cholera should appear in the country in the meantime. From present appearances, the session promises to be much longer than usual.

It is stated that there is a general falling off of travel on all the railroad lines throughout the country, but more particularly between Washington and the North. As an illustration of the falling off, the average number of passengers during February between New York and Washington, on each train, was forty five, which is less than a car load.

Shad are becoming plentiful in the New York markets. Last week, about four thousand of them were brought from the rivers and sounds of North Carolina, and a few from further South, and the promise for the next week or two of a much larger supply is good. Those now in market are bought as quickly as they appear at prices ranging from one dollar and fifty cents each and upward.

The Gainsville (Florida) Era makes mention of the the fast filling up of that State with immigrants from all parts of the world. It bids them welcome, and assures them of the kind reception they will receive from the people.

During the last two years the Government has realized, from the sales of confiscated and abandoned cotton, sugar, etc., in the State of Mississippi, over six million dollars.

It is said that there are 5,000 lodges of Free Masons in the world, containing altogether 1,500,000 members.

A minister in Connecticut offered up this prayer last Sunday: "Not my will, but thine, O Lord, be done; but if it be consistent with thy holy pleasure, we would that thou speedily telegraph for President Johnson to come up to Heaven."

So says the Boston Commercial.

Some of the papers which say that Semmes has not been "pardoned" are quite correct in the statement; but they are not correct if they would seek to imply from this that he is not to be released, as this latter is merely a question of red tape. The order for his release was written on Monday last.

Twenty of the largest New York city distillers were put under arrest Friday, for alleged attempts to commit frauds upon the Government in connection with the Internal Revenue act. The amounts involved are said to be very large.

The Iowa House of Representatives has passed the Senate resolutions demanding the speedy trial of Jeff. Davis for treason.

The democratic convention at New Orleans have nominated for Mayor John T. Monroe, who was Mayor when the city was captured.

April 5th is to be a day of Fasting, Humiliation and Prayer in Massachusetts. Query:—For the errors of Sumner and Phillips?

The facts and figures in regard to the loss of property in Fredericksburg during the war show, in real estate, over half a million, and in personal property considerably over a million—aggregating nearly two millions loss, in a population of 5,000—the heaviest, we presume, in the same area, and like population, of any spot in the Confederacy.

The Texas State convention continues its sessions. Resolutions involving a repudiation of all the public debts contracted by reason or on account of the rebellion, were being considered at latest advices.

Five thousand dollars have been sent to Secretary Stanton, from England, for the benefit of destitute freedmen. They had better have sent it to Ireland.

An act to establish the Rate of Interest and Repeal Chapter 114 of the Revised Code, entitled "Usury."

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the legal rate of interest upon all sums of money where interest is allowed, shall be six per cent. per annum for such time as interest may accrue, and no more: Provided, however, That any person may for the loan of money, but upon no other account, take interest at a rate so great as eight per cent. if both the consideration and the rate of interest shall be set forth in an obligation signed by the party to be charged or his agent. And if any person shall agree to take a greater rate of interest than six per cent per annum, when no rate is named in the obligation, or a greater rate than eight per cent. when the rate is named, the interest shall not be recoverable at Law or in Equity; and in all trials at Law or in Equity, when the plea of Usury shall be relied on, the defendant may examine the plaintiff upon oath, either by deposition or in open Court, according to the course of Court.

Be it further enacted, That Chapter 114 of the Revised Code, entitled "Usury," is hereby repealed, and this act shall be in force from its ratification.

[Ratified the twelfth day of March, 1866.]

CHANGES OF TIME.—The word "let" used to mean hinder, a couple of hundred years ago; it now means to permit—the exact opposite. We have a sample of the same revolution in the definition of words in current politics. Twelve months ago the word "copperhead" meant one who differed from the President; it now means one who agrees with him. Twelve months ago, opposing the President was opposing the government; now, agreeing with the President is opposing the government.

WORMS.

M. R. Dunaway of Yanceyville, N. C. A dyspeptic as quick as recommended the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS, and found them so beneficial that the removal of Worms must be less than usual for a year to them. I have known them to be most efficacious in expelling worms from children, and in one instance great relief was given in case of worms over one and piles.

DAILY SENTINEL

WM. B. PELL, Proprietor.

Wine! Wine! Wine!

The following contribution and the compliment to the writer, we copy from the New York Metropolitan Record. We judge from the signature it is from the pen of G. W. Stiles, Esq., one of the editors of the Winston Sentinel, whose editorials indicate more than ordinary ability.

The following spirited song comes to us from a talented contributor in North Carolina, and we welcome it to "Our Portfolio" as one of the best that we have yet published. It bears the stamp of genuine poetry, and we shall be glad to hear often from a source that can produce such ringing metal:

AWAKING.

Fill me a brimming beaker up,
Of the red Burgundian wine,
Of the burning Burgundian wine:
Let the bubbles burst from the lip of the cup
O'er this frozen heart of mine;
A heart that is numb, a heart that is dumb
That sleeps, and gives no sign.
For the fiery blood of the purple grape
Shall banish the chill of mine,
And youth come back at the potent spell
Of the great magician, wine!

Sing me a wild and wildering song,
A song of the olden time,
Of the olden, golden time,
When the laughing years as they danced along,
Rang out a glorious chime
Of hope and of youth, of love and of truth,
And all that is sublime
For the quickening soul of the melody
Shall scatter the shade from mine,
And the buried hopes of the past shall leap
Once more to the light divine!

Give me a long and lingering kiss,
Then maid of the starry eye,
Of the dark and starry eye,
Through my waking veins let the thrill of bliss
Like a flash electric fly,
And its burning roll o'er my yearning soul
Like levin o'er the sky.
For the answering heart of a maiden fair
Shall ravish the griefs from mine,
And a passion pure as the olden love
With the olden love shall twine!

HUMOR IN MEDICINE.—"Moreover, let me tell my young doctor friends, says Dr. John Brown, of Edinburg, author of "Rab and his Friends," "that a cheerful face, and an occasional hearty and kindly joke, and a power of executing and setting agoing a good laugh, are a stock in our trade not to be despised. The merry heart does good like a medicine. Your pompous man, and your selfish man, don't laugh much, or care for laughter; it discomposes the fixed grandeur of the one, and has little room in the heart of the other who is literally self-contained.

"I may give an instance when a joke was more and better than itself. A comely young wife, the cynosure of her circle, was in bed, apparently dying from swelling and inflammation of the throat, an inaccessible abscess stopping the way; she could swallow nothing; everything had been tried. Her friends were standing around her bed in misery and helplessness. "Try her wi' a compliment!" said her husband, in a not uncomic despair. She had genuine humor as well as he; and as physiologists know there is a sort of mental tickling which is beyond and above control, being under the reflex system, and instinctive as well as sighing. She laughed with her whole body and soul, and burst the abscess, and was well."

"Sydenham," he adds, when asked by Sir Richard Blackmore what he would advise him, for medical reading, replied, "Read Don Quixotte, sir."

THE HONEY MOON.—Why is the first month after marriage called the "honey moon?"—Doubtless on account of the sweet lunacy which controls the heads of the parties during the brief and delightful period. What a pity that they should ever get quite rational again! that sentimentality should give place to sentiment, sentiment to sense, love yield to logic, and fiction to fact, till the happy pair are reduced from the Eden of romance to the Sahara of reality, from heaven to earth—and perhaps a peg lower!

Strange as it may seem, there have been couples who have quarrelled in the first month of matrimony, and have got back to their astonished parents before the good mother had fairly done weeping (and rejoicing too,) at her daughter's departure. Their "honey-moon" soured at the full of her horn, and become a moon of vinegar instead. A bad omen that! There was much sense and propriety in the text which an ancient clergyman chose for a wedding sermon. It was taken from the Psalms of David, and read thus: "And let there be peace while the moon endureth."

"Sir, your journal of yesterday contained false information." "Impossible, sir! But tell me what do you allude to?" "You said that Mr. M. had been tried." "True." "Condemned." "Very true." "Hung." "Most true."—"Now, sir, I am that gentleman himself." "Impossible!" "I assure you it is a fact; and now I hope that you will contradict what you have alleged." "By no means, sir." "How! What do you mean? You are deranged." "I may be so, sir, but I will not do it." "I will complain to a magistrate." "As you please; but I never retract. The most that I can do for you is, to announce that the rope broke, and that you are now in perfect health. I have my principles, sir, and must maintain them."

"What would I give," said Chas. Lamb, "to call my mother back to earth for one day, to ask her pardon on my bended knees for all those acts by which I gave her gentle spirit pain."

Remember this, my young friend, when ever you are inclined to disobey your mother, or to do anything which you know will grieve her, when she is dead; such misconduct will awaken bitter recollections and you cannot ease your troubled soul by asking her pardon. She who bore you; who fervently loved you, and whose faithful heart you made to ache, will have gone never to return. The cruel deed will be irreparable.

DE LAS' BRICK.—Sambo.—Who frew dat las' brick?

Pompey.—What las' brick?

Sambo.—De brick what smash de colored bureau.

Pompey.—Why, Andy Johnson frew dat brick.

Sambo.—Goll! but he trow strong.

The Duchess de Mouchy thinks the Pachs of Egypt "an old darling." He sent her twenty thousand dollars' worth of diamonds as a wedding present.

Why is an offering like a matrimonial engagement? Because it begins with an offer and ends with a ring.

"Ah, doctaw, does the choleraw affect the highaw swells?" "No," replied the doctor to the exquisite, "but it is death on fools, and you had better leave the city at once."

Of the pardons granted by the President under the $20,000 clause, two thousand and seventy were Virginians and four hundred and eighty-two for North Carolinians.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established
Ætna Company, of Hartford,
Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.
All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assets of $2,300,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $5000, or $10,000, or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, above the pinchings of want, and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8 819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,683,339 57 total disbursements $527 805 24; leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155,244 33.
In Raleigh a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

THIS valuable Manure has been before the agricultural public, under one name for twelve years past, and its character for vigor of action and permanence in effect is well established. Before the war, it was introduced, to some extent, in the Southern States, and was found to be highly adapted to Cotton, Tobacco, and all Crops.
In its action, it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state, but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial.

COPARTNERSHIP.

NEWBERN, N. C., November 1st, 1865.
WE HAVE THIS DAY FORMED A COPARTnership under the name and style of Whitford, Dill & Co.,
for the transaction of a Shipping and General
Commission Business, in this Town, West side Craven Street, on old County Wharf.
To the sale of Cotton, Naval Stores, Tobacco, Lumber, Staves, Shingles, Corn, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandise, and also to the sale and purchase of Real Estate and State and other Stocks, we will give our personal attention.
We are Agents for Murry's North Carolina Semi Weekly Line of Steamships, between Newbern and New York, and for Sailing Vessels for Baltimore, Philadelphia, and other ports in the United States and for different ports in the West Indies Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passengers But in addition to these, there is a weekly line of Ocean Steamships on the same route, and a tri-weekly line of Steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal to Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.
☞ We will make liberal advances on consignments.
All letters addressed to us on the subject of freight, or on any other business, will be promptly answered

PROSPECTUS
OLD NORTH STATE.
"The Old North State Forever."

THE undersigned will commence the publication of a Daily and Weekly Newspaper, bearing the above title, in the city of Salisbury about the 10th of March next.
The Old North State will be, under our control, a firm and decided Union paper. But while it will be firm and decided in its support of the Union, and of all just and necessary measures tending to its complete restoration, it will yet be liberal and conservative. It will oppose radicalism from whatever quarter it may come. Confiding in the loyal intentions of the great body of the people of North Carolina, it will endeavor to soothe the asperities of the past by promoting among them a spirit of reconciliation and harmony.
Rejecting the exploded dogma of paramount State sovereignty, it will cheerfully support the National government in the exercise of every power necessary to the maintenance of its rightful authority, while it will ever contend against any encroachments upon the reserved rights of the States.
It will discuss all the various political issues of the day, but in doing this it will seek to avoid everything like partizan bitterness or personal vituperation. It will also strive to avoid that detestable practice, so common among politicians, of pandering to the passions and appealing to the prejudices of the multitude in order to accomplish partizan ends. It will endeavor to enlighten and direct aright public sentiment, by disseminating correct information, and by arguments addressed to the understanding—in short, it will endeavor to erect a high standard of political morality.
Its columns will be open for Political, Moral, Literary and Agricultural articles especially, and to the advertising public.
The Old North State will be printed on new type on the following
TERMS:

For the Daily 12 months,	$8 00
For the Daily 6 months,	4 50
For the Weekly 12 months,	3 00
For the Weekly 6 months,	1 50

CASH IN ADVANCE.
Any person sending us a club of ten subscribers at any one post office accompanied by the cash will be entitled to an extra copy for getting up the club.
We most respectfully solicit our friends to subscribe for the Old North State at once, also to aid us in extending its circulation as wide as possible.

THE LOYALIST.

THE undersigned propose to publish in Louisburg, North Carolina a newspaper under the above denomination, The LOYALIST, as its name imports, will yield a firm, uniform, and fearless support to the Constitution of the United States, and all laws enacted in pursuance of that great instrument. To the decisions of the Supreme Court of the nation, in such questions as originate in the interpretation or application of the principles involved in our federal jurisprudence or policy, the Loyalist will accord its unqualified acquiescence, as to the will of the American people, duly expressed through the only legitimate, determinate and sufficient medium. Its general politics will be those so long and so thoroughly taught by the patriotism, the eloquence, and the wisdom of Clay, and his departed compeers, and so fearfully vindicated by the present melancholy and helpless condition of the communities so recently arrayed in arms against the integrity and harmony of our national union
The Loyalist would make the institutions and independence, the material and moral dignity of the nation, as enduring and as brilliant as the stars whose images adorn the field and the folds of its flag. The Loyalist will also dedicate its energies and exert its abilities to ascertain and cherish the interests, as well as to develope the immense resources of North Carolina. To the cause of education, the general diffusion of knowledge, the elevation of the masses, and the religious culture of all within its influence, it will be a consistent and inflexible friend. Its editorial department will be conducted by gentlemen whose names will be announced in due time
The LOYALIST will be issued weekly, carefully printed, of the size of the Raleigh "Daily Sentinel," and furnished to patrons at $3.00 per annum, payable on delivery of the first number Subscriptions and communications respectfully solicited.

1866. SPRING TRADE. 1866.

IN OPENING THE
SPRING TRADE,
I would return my most grateful thanks to the citizens of Petersburg and the surrounding country for the very liberal patronage extended the past season, and hope to merit its further continuance by holding out still further inducements.
My present facilities are beyond doubt unequalled, and no effort will be spared to place before our patrons Goods
AT THE LOWEST PRICE,
that the present market value will admit of, and in many instances much below, as we are constantly represented at the large auction sales, where goods are frequently sold much less than cost of importation. These, with Many Other Available Facilities,
I pledge myself to use to the best interest of our customers.
The stock is now much larger and better assorted than at any time previous, having added a complete assortment of
HOUSE-FURNISHING GOODS,
Among them the most elegant
Satin Damask,
Lace and Muslin Curtains,
Wine Cloths,
Piano and Table Covers,
Stair Linen,

Laces and Embroideries

THE STOCK OF
LADIES' DRESS GOODS,
Must be seen to be appreciated. I therefore invite all to an inspection, and in catering so well for the ladies, I would assure the gentlemen they have not been forgotten. The assortment of Cloths,
Cassimeres,
—AND—
Furnishing Goods Generally,
Is complete, and it is hoped those in want of goods of this class will not fail to give us a call.
To the Merchants of Virginia and North Carolina, who have so liberally patronized us the past season, I return my most grateful thanks, and solicit an early call, assuring them they will find our goods at as low prices as any house North or South.
